Parents can now rest assured that the money they provide for their student's meals actually make it to their lunch account. They also have the ability to monitor their lunch-time expenditures online.

"Keeping track of four children is hard enough, let alone making sure that their lunch money is ready for them and being spent on the right things. myschoolaccount.com is like a breath of fresh air. It gives me that piece of mind knowing my children always have lunch money and that they are spending it wisely."
