

TES Principal Report February 2019

Students:

100th Day Celebration: Kindergarten and First Grade engaged in a variety of activities centered around our 100th day of school this year.

Third and Fourth Grade Field Trip: Third and fourth grades traveled to Pullman to enjoy a Festival Dance presentation, Why Dance Matters. The presentation focused on the element of dance-time, space, and energy. Students enjoyed the rhythms with feet and hands, as well as the moving, creating, and connecting.

Souper" Bowl: Families donated food to share with the Troy Food Bank. The fourth grade made a significant contribution by bringing in more than 200 items.

Community Outreach: Third grade has been studying communities. As a part of that study they have been combining their art with community outreach. The placemats for the senior lunches were well received.

Silverwood Reading is the Ticket: Once again TES students are participating in the Reading is the Ticket program. They complete ten hours of "outside" reading by the end of February to earn one admission to Silverwood Theme park. This is our third year to participate.

Marimba Workshop: Students in the fifth and sixth were excited to work with the Moscow Charter Marimba club. They played songs together then the rest of the student body joined them for a performance.

Safety Drills: Fire drill

Staff:

Readers As Leaders Lunch: TES staff were awarded a lunch for turning in their information first. It was provided by Dr. Pickard. He joined the staff and they had a good conversation on how the program helps the students and how it can be improved.

Idaho Core Coaching: Mrs. Starks & Mrs. Renfrow

Safe Schools: Family Reunification, Emergency Operations Planning: Implementing the Plan

Data Wall: Staff analyzed the mid-year (benchmarks) and updated action plans.

PBIS: Mrs. Tibbals, Mrs. Foote, Mrs. Espy, Mrs. Renfrow, and Mrs. Vogt complete tier 3 training.

Assessment & Accountability Roadshow: Mrs. Cannon, Mrs. Morris, Miss Cox & Mrs. Vogt

Project Leadership: Mrs. Vogt
