

5th Grade January Newsletter

Mrs. Bohman
Grade 5
January 12, 2018

Standards to Learn in January:

Math:

*The Highly Proficient student can draw or construct specific two-dimensional figures according to its definitions, attributes, or categories.

*The Highly Proficient student can classify two-dimensional figures in the hierarchy based on properties.

Reading:

*The Highly Proficient student can accurately quote strong textual evidence when explaining what the text says explicitly and when drawing complex inferences from the text.

*The Highly Proficient student can analyze multiple sources of the same event or topic, noting important similarities and differences in the point of view they represent, and evaluate the effectiveness of the accounts.

*The Highly Proficient student can evaluate the strengths of an author's reasoning and explain how the reasons and evidence support their points.

Writing:

*The Highly Proficient student can create a five paragraph essay that defends my position on a given topic or text providing effective, relevant reasons that are logically and purposefully ordered and supported by facts and details, includes a topic sentence, effective reasons, relative information, and a strong conclusion.

Science:

* I can propose a solution, resource, or product that addresses a specific human, animal, and habitat need.

Social Studies:

* I can describe how specific events helped lead to the American Revolution.

5th Grade Happenings:

Welcome back from Winter Break. Each student has been assigned a person or event from the American Revolution to research. This research project is due February 2. Please don't hesitate to contact me with any questions or concerns. abohman@troysd287.org

- January 15- No School
- January 24- Late Start

Please check Family Link to monitor your child's academic progress.

Spelling Packets are due every other Thursday. Check student planners for current spelling words.